Announcement on the Cooperation Progress of Pomalaa Project among Ford Motor and PTVI

The Board of Directors and all directors of the Company warrant that there is no false representation, misleading statement or material omissions herein, and will assume joint and several liabilities with respect to the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness hereof.

Project name: MHP HPAL project with annual output of 120,000 tons (amount of nickel metal) by PT Kolaka Nickel Indonesia

Recently, Huaqi Singapore, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, received a feasibility study report on Pomalaa Mine Project FEL-3 issued by PTVI (“FEL-3 Study Report”). The FEL-3 Study Report shows that Pomalaa Mine can support a HPAL project with annual output of 120,000 tons. Based on the FEL-3 Study Report, Huaqi Singapore intends to select the product of MHP with annual output of 120,000 tons (amount of nickel metal).

Meanwhile, the Company intends, through Huaqi Singapore, to sign an Amended and Restated Joint Venture Agreement with PTVI, Ford Motor and KNI, and an Amended and Restated Definitive Cooperation Agreement with PTVI and KNI, to agree that the parties will jointly construct the MHP HPAL Project with annual output of 120,000 tons (amount of nickel metal) in Indonesia, according to the HPAL Project Feasibility Study Report, the total investment amount of the project is approximately 3,842.152 million US dollars (excluding working capital investment, it is approximately $3,463.829 million). According to relevant provisions thereof, Ford Motor will first subscribe for 8.5% of the newly issued shares of KNI. Upon completion of the subscription, Huaqi Singapore, Ford Motor and PTVI will hold 73.2%, 8.5% and 18.3% equity in KNI, respectively. Within the agreed time period, Ford Motor will ultimately choose to participate in the HPAL Project by way of subscribing 8.5% or 17% of KNI's equity, and PTVI will have the right to exercise up to 30% of participation options in KNI. The ultimate equity structure of KNI will depend on the exercise of rights by all parties. The Company intends, through KNI, to sign an Ore Supply Agreement with PTVI to agree that PTVI shall exclusively supply to KNI and KNI shall exclusively purchase from PTVI the limonite ore from Pomalaa Mine for the HPAL Project. The Company intends, through Huaqi Singapore, to sign an Offtake Agreement with KNI, and Ford Motor also intends to sign an Offtake Agreement with KNI; Ford, KNI, Huaqi Singapore and PTVI intends to sign an Offtake Coordination Agreement to further agree the parties' sales arrangements of MHP with KNI.

Special Risk Warning:

1. The Company needs to go through government approval/filing and/or other administrative procedures in China and Indonesia for the external investment, and it is uncertain whether they can be successfully completed.

2. The investment is an arrangement made by the Company in accordance with the medium and long-term development plan. It will take a long time in project construction, during which there are uncertainties in domestic and foreign markets, industrial policies and technology, and unforeseen factors or force majeure factors that may result in uncertainty in the realization of future operating benefits.

3. In the process of project investment and construction, financing, changes in credit policies, and smooth financing channels are uncertain to some extent, and there is a risk that the project may not be completed smoothly because funds cannot be raised on time.

4. There is great uncertainty in the future price trend of nickel-cobalt metal, and if the price of nickel-cobalt metal falls sharply in future, it will result in significant uncertainty in the profitability of the project.

5. The agreements related to this transaction will be signed together with the approval of the competent authorities of all parties, and there is uncertainty about whether they can be approved.

6. The investment does not constitute a performance commitment. Please pay attention to investment risks.

I. Overview of the Investment(I) Basic information

Recently, Huaqi (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. (“Huaqi Singapore”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Zhejiang Huayou Cobalt Co., Ltd. (the “Company”), received the FEL-3 Study Report issued by PT Vale Indonesia Tbk (“PTVI”). The FEL-3 Study Report shows that Pomalaa Mine can support a HPAL project with annual output of 120,000 tons (the “Pomalaa Mine Project” or “HPAL Project”). Based on the FEL-3 Study Report, Huaqi Singapore intends to select the product of mixed nickel–cobalt hydroxide precipitates (“MHP”) with annual output of 120,000 tons (amount of nickel metal).

Meanwhile, the Company intends, through Huaqi Singapore, to sign an Amended and Restated Joint Venture Agreement (the “Joint Venture Agreement”) with PTVI, Ford Motor Company (“Ford Motor”) and PT Kolaka Nickel Indonesia (“KNI” or the “Project Company”), and an Amended and Restated Definitive Cooperation Agreement (“Definitive Cooperation Agreement”) with PTVI and KNI, to agree that the parties will joint construct the MHP HPAL Project with annual output of 120,000 tons (amount of nickel metal) in Indonesia, according to the HPAL Project Feasibility Study Report, the total investment amount of the project is approximately 3,842.152 million US dollars (excluding working capital investment, it is approximately $3,463.829 million). 2. Guarantee period

The _____ is a continuous and irrevocable guarantee for the Guaranteed Obligations. It shall take effect from the completion date agreed upon in the _____ signed by Ford Motor and other parties thereto, until the earlier of the following: (1) the obligor has fully performed and complied with all Guaranteed Obligations in accordance with the terms and conditions of the _____ ; or (2) the _____ has been terminated or amended in respect of the obligor or beneficiary, or the obligor or beneficiary is no longer a party to the _____ .

The above resolutions are subject to the final approval by the shareholders' meeting.

In the Company’s development strategy plan during the “14th Five-Year Plan” period, new energy lithium battery materials industry is taken as core business for development. With the global commercialization of new energy vehicles, there will be a growing demand for nickel resources to be used in ternary materials. Under the related cooperation agreements signed with PTVI and Ford Motor, the scale and amount of investment in Pomalaa Mine Project are determined, and the rights and obligations of the parties are further clarified, which is an important milestone in Pomalaa Mine Project. The Company, PTVI and Ford Motor will jointly promote the development of nickel resources in Indonesia, and give full play to their respective advantages to create a competitive nickel manufacturing system for new energy power batteries, make a green and sustainable supply chain and promote high-quality development of the Company.

The investment will not have any significant impact on the Company’s business performance in 2023. It is uncertain whether it will have any impact on future business performance of the Company.

1. The Company needs to go through government approval/filing and/or other administrative procedures in China and Indonesia for the external investment, and it is uncertain whether they can be successfully completed.

2. The investment is an arrangement made by the Company in accordance with the medium and long-term development plan. It will take a long time in project construction, during which there are uncertainties in domestic and foreign markets, industrial policies and technology, and unforeseen factors or force majeure factors that may result in uncertainty in the realization of future operating benefits.
